IPInvestments Group Retained to Market Patent Portfolio Related to Web Services

Thursday October 12, 4:35 pm ET

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--IPInvestments Group, an intellectual property business advisory firm, today announced that the Company has been retained to market a portfolio of key patents in the Web Services space.

The patented technologies are pioneering and describe how diverse computer systems connected to the Web can locate and talk to one another, exchange services and run fully distributed applications on multiple devices and platforms. The portfolio describes the automated discovery and connection of Web services, and how information and specifications are exchanged between systems.

The patent portfolio consists of the following eight (8) issued U.S. Patents and has one (1) pending child patent application:

- 5,850,518
- 6,397,254
- 6,421,705
- 6,546,413
- 6,671,713
- 6,671,746
- 6,779,000
- 6,922,705

The parent '518 patent--with the remaining seven (7) patents being child continuations--was filed with the United States Patent & Trademark Office in 1994.

An information package will be sent to identified potential acquirers detailing the patent portfolio sale opportunity. Companies interested in receiving this information package may contact Michael McLaughlin or Charlie Chamberlain of IPInvestments Group at 404-962-8740, or via email at mmclaughlin@ipinvestmentsgroup.com and cchamberlain@ipinvestmentsgroup.com.
